EXHIBITION SCHEDULE - July - December, 1962

July 10 - Aug. 5 THE ART OF JULIO GONZALEZ

An exhibition of welded, wrought and cut metal sculpture, primarily abstract, by one of the major artists of the 20th century. Rarely seen in this country, Gonzalez' work incorporates technical innovations and the contemporary interest of space as part of the form of the sculpture. Some objects are for sale.

July 10 - Aug. 5 JAPANESE SCREENS FROM THE MUSEUM COLLECTION

An exhibition of Japanese screens from the Museum's own collection.

July 10 - Sept. 23 CONTEMPORARY ART FROM CLEVELAND COLLECTIONS

An exhibition in two parts: the July 10 - Aug. 12 section will include works by artists active during the early years of the 20th century and some older masters still working. From Aug. 20 - Sept. 23 more recent works by younger artists will be shown. Included are Vlaminck, Picasso, Utrillo, Dubuffet, Baziot, Calder, Arp, Afro, Stamos, Lipchitz and Chillida.

July 17 - Sept. 16 RECENT WORK OF GABOR PETERDI

An exhibition of etchings, engravings and aquatints and a select group of drawings from one of America's leading figures in the contemporary print movement.

Aug. 23 - Sept. 23 ARTIST-CRAFTSMEN OF WESTERN EUROPE

A major review of original contemporary crafts from Austria, Belgium, Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Spain, Switzerland and France done in the past five years. The ecclesiastical objects and handcrafts for every day use include wood carvings, glass, tapestries, bookbinding, jewelry, metalwork and enameling, basket weaving, handwoven fabrics, stained glass windows and ceramics. The exhibition was organized by The Museum of Contemporary Crafts and the American Federation of Arts.
